

The Breaking of the Bread

Luke 24:13-35

Chorus

Lord, we know you in the breaking of the bread
Lord, we hear you in the words that you have said.
(Last time only: In the breaking of the bread.)

Verse 1

In the Word and the Water the Spirit makes us free.
We are your sons and daughters,
in your presence constantly.

Verse 2

The body and the blood. The bread and the wine.
The gift of your presence. Your life alive in mine.

Verse 3

Like those two disciples on that dark Emmaus road.
We struggle 'neath the burden, disappointment's heavy load.
We're looking for your presence, to know that you are near.
A light to shine in darkness, the love that casts out fear.
So in the water and the word, in your gift of bread and wine,
Light the fire in our hearts, Lord, open up our eyes.

Verse 4

Speak to us, O Jesus, let us hear your saving voice.
By your Word you draw near us,
and in your presence we rejoice.
In the breaking of the bread, in your living Word so true.
Come fill us with your love.
Come and bind our hearts to you.
