

A New Song

Psalm 40

Verse 1

I have waited patiently for you, Lord.
And you turned to me and heard my cry.
You have lifted me out of the mire,
And set my feet upon the Rock on high.

Chorus

You put a new song in my mouth
A hymn of praise to you, my God
For now I see your love for me
And I put my trust in you
You put a new song in my mouth
A hymn of praise to you, my God
For now I see your love for me
And I sing to you a new song, a new song.

Verse 2

Blessed is the one who trusts in you, Lord,
Who does not look aside to other gods.
Many are the blessings you have given.
I could never start to count them all.

Bridge

Sacrifice and offering you do not want from me
Without a heart that's set upon your will.
Now I stand before you and I lift my voice to sing.
I will proclaim, I will proclaim, I will proclaim Your love.
