

Yesterday, Today, and Forever

Hebrews 13:8

Verse 1

Changing weather, changing shoes
Changing classes, changing views
Changing plans for what I want to do
Changing teams and changing shows
Changing friends and changing clothes
Changing all the songs I listen to

Chorus

But You are the same, changing never
Your love is the same
Yesterday, today and forever

Verse 2

Changing schedules, changing rules
Changing houses, changing schools
Changing calendars for New Year's Day
But in the changes I remain
Within the hand that stays the same
Within the heart that calls to me by name

Bridge

Nothing in this changing world
Can ever change the place
Of that cross lifted up on Calvary
Now I sing your praises for your everlasting grace
Is working a change in me

Verse 3

Change my mind and change my soul
Change it all to your control
Change the things I say to things I do
Change my selfish ways to love
Change my thoughts to things above
Change my heart to trusting only you
