I will help you stand
I am with you now
You need not be afraid
By my grace I set you free
So that you can follow me
Every day until we reach the promised land
Hand in hand

Verse 2

You reach out Your hand
And help the weak to stand
Your right hand is strong to save
Your right hand defeats the grave

And so I will rejoice
When I hear Your voice

Bridge

Are the hands that are holding on to me
Oh help me to believe

When You say . . .
